DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restriction

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1, 2, 4-26, 28 and 29, as the claims relate to methods of inhibiting an immune response, drawn to methods of inhibiting an immune response classified in class 514, subclass 2.
 - II. Claims 1, 3-26, 28, 30, as the claims relate to methods of enhancing an immune response, drawn to methods of enhancing an immune response, classified in class 514, subclass 2.
 - III. Claim 27, drawn to therapeutic preparations, classification dependent on the chemical identity of the hedgehog peptide or ptc therapeutic.
2. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Although there are no provisions under the section for "Relationship of Inventions" in M.P.E.P.

§ 806.05 for inventive groups that are directed to different methods, restriction is deemed to be proper because these methods appear to constitute patentably distinct inventions for the following reasons: Groups I and II are directed to methods that are distinct both physically and functionally, and are not required one for the other. The two groups are directed to methods that are mutually exclusive, accomplish opposite goals and would necessarily require different starting materials.

Art Unit: 1646

3. Invention of Group III and the inventions of Groups I and II are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the products of Group III can be used in a myriad of unrelated to ways that are patentably distinct, such as in immunohistochemical or diagnostic purposes or in patentably distinct methods of tissue manipulation.

4. Therefore, because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and because a search and examination of all the groups in one patent application would result in an undue burden, since the searches for the groups are not co-extensive, the classification is different, and the subject matter is divergent, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

5. The claims of Groups I-III are generic to an essentially limitless number of patentably distinct species of hedgehog agonists and antagonists, either to be present in the therapeutic preparations of Group III or to be administered in any one of the methods of Groups I or II. Each disclosed hedgehog agonist or antagonist appears to be a chemically and functionally distinct molecule, the use of one not being required for the use of any other. Furthermore, although a search of any one of the species may overlap that of another, the search of one species could not be relied upon, solely, to provide art that is anticipatory or would render obvious that of any other, and to search all species would be burdensome.

Art Unit: 1646

6. Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species of molecule to be present in the therapeutic preparations of Group III or to be administered in any one of the methods of Groups I or II for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently all claims appear to be generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

7. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

8. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
